Selection to the 2022 Training Industry Top Online Learning Library Companies lists was based on the following criteria:

- Breadth and quality of courses, features and capabilities.
- Industry visibility, innovation and impact in the online learning library market.
- Client and user representation.
- Business performance and growth.

"This year's Top 20 Online Learning Library Companies features a strong course catalog that sets the standards of quality comprehensive solutions," said Jessica Schue, market research analyst at Training Industry, Inc. "These organizations offer up-to-date, on-demand content covering a broad array of training topics with the capabilities of customizing the learner experience to keep their learners engaged."

"This year's Watch List winners represent an assortment of providers who have strengths in various specialty topics, industries or supportive features," said Tom Whelan, director of corporate research at Training Industry, Inc. "The solutions offered by these companies bridge the divide between course providers and cutting-edge learning technologies in ways that uniquely help organizations close employee skills gaps and improve learner retention."
